New York, September 19.—The Reds won their first game of the season on the Polo Grounds to-day, winning the first scrap of a double-header with the Giants 3 to 1. Jeff Tesreau, who had a string of seven straight victories to his credit, held the Reds to six hits, but two of them were coupled with an error for Reds' winning run in the ninth. The teams were deadlocked at 2 to 2 when darkness stopped the second combat at the end of the ninth. Scores:

Cleveland, September 19.—Cleveland defeated Boston in both games of a double-header here to-day, 9 to 6 and 6 to 0. Rain halted the first game in the Naps' half of the fifth. Both Steen and Hall were knocked off the rubber. Seven errors by Boston helped the Naps pile up a high score.

The second game was called at the end of the sixth on account of darkness. It was a one-sided affair, only three Boston players being in their regular positions. Stahl and Speaker were put off the field by Umpire Connolly in the third inning of the first game for disputing a decision.
